

“Batty About STEM”

The students in Mrs. Simpson’s second grade class did a month-long unit on bats which culminated in our STEM design challenge yesterday. The kids had to design and build a bat that was 8 inches across, had two moving parts, and could hang upside down. It was a great success!

More pictures below:

