

On February 26, the students in Mrs. Barr's and Mrs. Higgins' Third Grade class held STEM Day to celebrate National Engineers' Week. They explored magnets and magnetism, as well as building a free standing structure. The students had a great time learning, exploring and making memories while being Engineers for the day!

Exploring Magnets and Magnetism

Marvelous Magnet Art

Magnet Powered Cars

Marshmallow Towers

