

Melissa Newhall, First Grade Teacher at Swift School was honored as a Finalist for Atlanticare's Healthy Educator Award at the Atlantic City Country Club. She is seen receiving her award from Atlanticare's Laura Engelmann.

Teachers from Atlantic and Cape May County were nominated by their colleagues and judged by a panel of Atlanticare Personnel. Melissa works tirelessly with Sustainable NJ to improve Swift's Health and Wellness. She is the leader of Swift's Green Team and is in charge of the School Garden/Swift recycling program. Congratulations, Melissa for a job well done!
