

The third graders released monarch butterflies as a part of a class project! They have been raising the monarchs from the egg, caterpillar, to chrysalis stage. Finally, the butterflies emerged from their chrysalis and will now migrate to Mexico. The third graders have been learning the life cycle and migration patterns of monarch butterflies as a STEM project.

