

Students at Swift School were treated to healthy green smoothies during their lunch periods. Parent volunteers whipped up delicious smoothies made from bananas, pineapples, spinach and orange juice. They were then encouraged to show the camera their best Green Mustache.

