

The students from Mrs. Zaccagnino's 2nd grade class participated in STEM day and created projects that required science, technology, engineering, and math skills.

