

The first grade team at Swift learned about friction and what made the best ice skates. They also performed other “Frozen” themed science projects. The various STEM activities were enjoyed by all.

